

DOUGLAS CAMERON

Phone: 425.454.3374
Fax: 425.454.0087

Email: dcameron@hansonbaker.com

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

Creditors' Rights
Finance and Banking
General Business

Doug focuses his practice on the representation of creditors in both state and federal courts. In state courts, he is well-versed in lien foreclosures, collections and receivership litigation. In federal courts, he represents creditors in all aspects of bankruptcy litigation, including relief from stay, preferences, fraudulent transfers and contesting bankruptcy plans.

EDUCATION

J.D., Seattle University School of Law

Executive Editor, Seattle Journal for Social Justice

Law Clerk for the Washington State Office of the Attorney General, 2009

Law Clerk for the United States Attorney's Office, 2010

Judicial Clerk to Honorable Dean S. Lum, King County Superior Court, 2010

B.S., Gonzaga University

Dean's List

Merit Scholar

ARTICLES AND PRESENTATIONS

Boot Camp: Foreclosure and Loan Workout Procedures, Presenter,
NBI, November 2016

Secured Lenders Can Have Their Receivership Cake and Eat It Too,
WSBA Newsletter, Summer - Fall 2016

Nuts & Bolts of Receiverships and 2017 Changes to Come, KCBA Real Property,
Probate and Trust Law Section, March 2016

Foreclosure Mediation Outreach Project, Presenter, July 2013, July 2014

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

King County Bar Association, Member

Washington State Bar Association, Member

Seattle University School of Law Mentorship Program, Mentor

City of Maple Valley, Parks & Recreation Commission

BAR / COURT ADMISSIONS

Admitted to Washington, 2010

Admitted to U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington, 2011

Admitted to U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Washington, 2014

HONORS / AWARDS / UNIQUE RECOGNITION

CALI Excellence for the Future Award, Comprehensive Pre-Trial Advocacy

Named Super Lawyers Rising Star in 2017 and 2018 by Washington

Law & Politics

PERSONAL

In his personal time, Doug enjoys time with his wife and three children, fly fishing, and struggles to improve his golf game.